

Students of University of IOWA, US visited Kudumbashree

A Fourteen member team from University of IOWA, USA have visited Kudumbashree on 3rd January 2018 in order to understand the functioning of Kudumbashree and the major schemes of Kudumbashree for eradicating poverty from the State. Kudumbashree Programme Officers / Chief Operating Officers explained them various initiatives of Kudumbashree such as Organisation, Micro Finance, Micro Enterprises& Marketing, FarmLivelihoods etc.

The students of one of the famous universities of United States have come to Kerala with an intension to study the Kerala Model of Sustainable Development. Their visit to Kerala was facilitated by Larry Baker foundation.

Ajith Chacko / Ashitha Nazeer